MEETING OF THE COMMON COUNCIL
FORT WAYNE, INDIANA

January 27, 1970

At the regular meeting of the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne, Indiana, on January 27, 1970, Mrs. Celia Ann Fay addressed the Council members and audience as follows:

"The first effort to involve women in local government in an organized manner and through their own organizations is Operation WIG (Women Interested in Government). Initiated by two of the organizations themselves, American Association of University Women and Fort Wayne Business and Professional Women, Inc., it was decided to increase the number to 12 organizations, permitting each to send two representatives to the regularly and specially scheduled meetings of city government. Starting January 15 and ending March 13 after a two-month period of observing local government in action, the schedule includes every department and about 30 meetings.

The organizations participating are:

Allen County Federation of Clubs
Altrusa International
American Association of University Women
Fort Wayne Business and Professional Women, Inc.
Church Women United
Jaycee Wives
Jenny Connor Civic Club
Lillian Jones Brown Cultural Clubs I and II
Fort Wayne Parent Teachers Association
Newcomers Club
Tri Kappa, Inc.
Psi Ote

Tonight is their first appearance at City Council and we welcome them. I think you will get a great deal out of this effort you are putting forth, and I know this kind of citizen interest and participation will be good for the City! Good luck! And good reporting back to your organizations!

The request for a second Operation WIG in the fall starting September 15, 1970, has been made by three other women's organizations, and again it will be open to at least 12 groups."

Mrs. Fay moved, and Mr. Steigerwald seconded, that her remarks be made a matter of record. Motion carried.

The Council then adjourned.
